HUB & SPOKE TRIPLE DESTINATION RIDE-Mon, Tue, Wed, May 20th, 21st , 22nd

THE HUB IS RETROTOURS HOME BASE. WE CAN COMFORTABLY ACCOMMODATE UP TO 6 RIDERS B&B STYLE. IF YOU'RE NOT LOCAL TO KENNETT SQUARE, PA, YOU COULD ARRIVE A DAY EARLY AND SPEND NIGHTS HERE. THE EXORBITANT B&B FEE IS $25 PER NIGHT WHICH INCLUDES CLEAN SHEETS, PRIVATE BATHROOM, AND DINNER. WE ALSO PROVIDE FREE AIRPORT OR TRAIN/BUS STATION TRANSFERS AS NEEDED AND OF COURSE, FREE, SECURE PARKING. THE SPOKES ARE SCENIC BACK ROADS TAKEN AT A RELAXED PACE TO INTERESTING DESTINATIONS. COME FOR 1, 2, OR ALL THREE DAYS.

For example, one day we could visit The Reading Pagoda. It's under 75 miles to this unique attraction on a high cliff overlooking all of Reading, PA. The ride there includes some very lovely back roads through the Brandywine Valley. After taking in the views, we head down the mountain through a series of 7 hairpin curves that are used once a year as a road race course, then take lunch at a local eatery, followed by an alternate route home. Then we enjoy a fantastic dinner at 1 of Kennett's 50 restaurants, followed by a good night's rest.

On a different 'spoke', we could head north along the Susquehanna River to Columbia, where we will enjoy a gourmet brunch with a view of the historic Wrightsville Bridge, followed by a quick look at the Haines Shoe House, a very quirky place. Upon our return, we will enjoy a home cooked meal. Total mileage for this ride is a bit under 200 miles total, with several interesting stops along the way.

There is also the Mobility Air Command Museum about 60 miles south, and the Atlantic Shore is 70 miles to the east. So many possibilities, and great rides all. Help me choose!

You can pick three bikes of your choice from our fleet and may elect to swap with other riders to experience even more vintage gold. The roads will be narrow and curvy, traffic will be light or non-existent. The destinations are unique and interesting, and I promise that you will be very well fed.

Why not do it?
